Promoting life-long learning through Individual Accounts

December 2nd, 2020 - The promotion of life-long learning (LLL) has become a high priority in the economic and social agenda of OECD countries. It is considered as one of the cornerstones of the “active welfare state.” Several countries have introduced or at least experimented Individual Learning Accounts (ILAs) as a way to promote LLL. ILAs designate all the schemes that provide the individual with funds. ILAs must produce a range of policies which formally set out the guidelines and procedures for ensuring equality. These must take account of the rights of all individuals and groups within the school.
